Description

 Sold on the First Viewing ***

A three story terraced property recently refurbished throughout, situated in a well regarded residential road, walking distance to popular schools for children of ages, local amenities and good transport links.

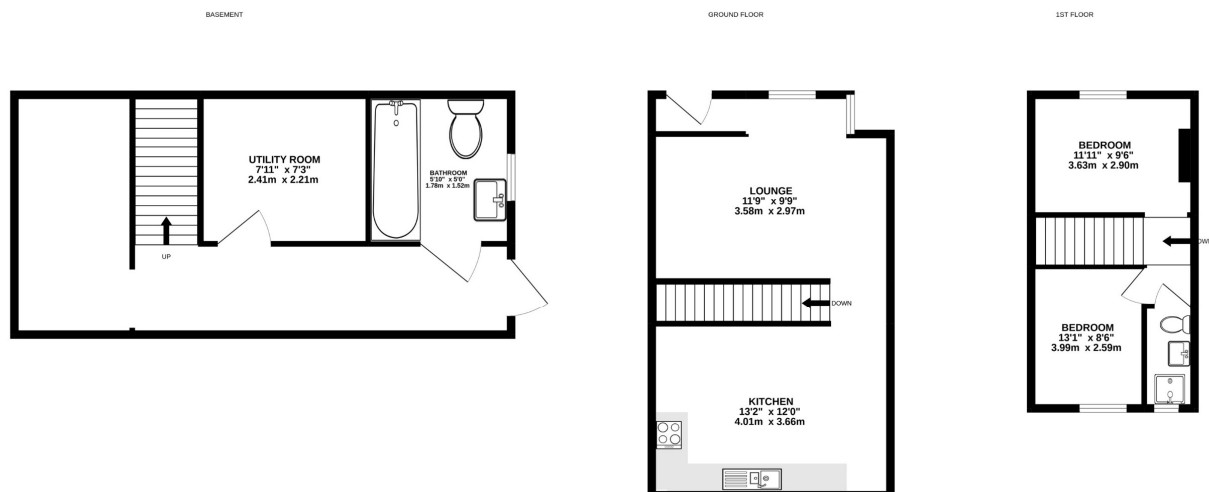

On entering the property you are greeted by an entrance porch, leading to the lounge with a kitchen. The first floor boasts two double bedrooms and a newly fitted shower room. The basement has a bonus room as well an additional bathroom and a cellar. Access to the garden is through the basement.

Bridges are delighted to offer this family home to the market and highly recommend viewing as being sold with no onward chain complications.

Outside

To the rear of the property is an enclosed rear garden with a patio area ideally for relaxing in the evening summer sun.
